SETTINGS

After creating an outline, start authoring content by selecting a template. Elicitus provides over 200 templates or page design layouts for placing your content within topic pages. You can choose to globally apply a default template for all topics in a course. If required, you can modify this template in the topic pages.

Once you select a template, type in text and embed pictures into the template. Elicitus text editor allows several formatting operations such as bold, italics, bullets, numbers, justification etc. You can even bring in HTML and Flash.
